Langmeil 3 Gardens

With its name drawn from the old Barossa Vignerons word for vineyard. Three Gardens, a blend of Shiraz (48%), Grenache (42%), and Mourve'dre (10%), has fill, ripe fruit, supported by firm, but fine tannins. Flavors of cherries and black cherries combine with hints of cloves and cinnamon. This rich, full-bodied wine would benefit from being enjoyed with Hearty dishes such as pasta, casseroles, steaks and burgers.

$8.00 per glass $38.00 per bottle

McWilliams Cabernet Sauvignon

This Australian wine is nicely lifted, with fragrant cedar, menthol, black cherry and spicy notes. The fruit is a bit brighter on the palate, and joined by spice and chocolate cream from the barrels.
